

INVESTOR ENGAGEMENT:

Georgeson Advisory

Build trust.
Manage risk.
Influence outcomes.

Delivered through Georgeson Advisory – part of the Computershare Group – our investor advisory solution provides expert strategic support during high-stakes shareholder events, such as M&A, activism, and proxy contests.

Working closely with boards, IR leaders and governance teams, we focus on reducing risk, shaping stakeholder sentiment and helping secure the outcomes that matter – especially when the pressure is on.

Why it's essential

Shareholder activism, contested votes and M&A events call for more than routine engagement – they demand strategic insight, speed and precision.

Georgeson Advisory brings strategic foresight – helping companies stay ahead of the curve by identifying risks, engaging proactively and heading off shareholder reactions before they escalate. We bring stability, clarity and confidence at the moments when outcomes hang in the balance.

Why it's unique

- Specialist high-stakes expertise – trusted by global boards in the most demanding scenarios
- End-to-end shareholder strategy – from planning and engagement to execution and follow-up
- Market-leading access – strong relationships with institutional investors and proxy advisors worldwide
- Seamless ecosystem integration – works alongside Investor Intelligence and the ingage platform for a full-circle insight-to-action approach

Individually powerful. Together, transformational.

As a standalone service, Georgeson Advisory delivers clear strategic value. But when combined with Investor Intelligence and the ingage platform – two other solutions from the Computershare Investor Engagement suite – it creates a connected system of insight, engagement and action.

Together, they enable leadership teams to build resilience across every phase of the investor engagement lifecycle – from early risk detection to alignment, sentiment management and resolution.

This is more than integration. It's strategic advantage.

True influence starts here.

What you gain

-  Clearer strategies for navigating investor-critical moments
-  Reduced risk of shareholder misalignment or reputational damage
-  Greater ability to secure votes, approval and long-term support
-  Trusted, experienced counsel when pressure is highest
