

KCC Named Best Claims Administrator

KCC is happy to announce that we were named “Best of 2020” in the category “Best Claims Administrator” by The National Law Journal.

KCC creates a higher standard for our industry by focusing on clients’ needs from the perspective of professionals. Our team provides professional-level client service, industry expertise and innovative technology solutions to support your critical business processes and transactions. As a result, we have earned national and industry recognition for our services, leadership, innovative business model and company growth.

Thousands of legal professionals responded to The National Law Journal’s poll, and we appreciate their support.

Our recognition will be published in the March issue of The National Law Journal.
