

KCC is pleased to announce that Beth Friedman has joined the team as Senior Director

Beth brings with her over 25 years of corporate restructuring experience most recently as the Restructuring Department Coordinator at Kirkland & Ellis LLP. She worked on complex cases such as Calpine Corporation, Charter Communications, Sbarros, The Great Atlantic and Tea Company, The Readers Digest Corporation, Avaya, Energy Future Holdings, Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Payless Corporation and 21st Century Oncology among others. Beth joins KCC's well-established team of industry professionals including Alby Kass, Francine Gordon and Rob Jordan.

As a key member of the business development team, Beth will work with KCC clients to ensure they receive exceptional service tailored to the unique needs of the specific case. "Adding Beth to KCC enhances KCC's business development team and reinforces our commitment to efficient, innovative and cost-minimized solutions while maintaining KCC's exceptional service for our clients in all facets of the restructuring process." said Alby Kass, Senior Executive Vice President for KCC.

Throughout her career, Beth has built a reputation as a trusted and valued advisor. Having experience in large and small, pre-pack and pre-arranged as well as free fall cases, her first-hand knowledge proves invaluable in managing the complexities and challenges of developing claims administration and noticing plans that suit each client. As an active member in the industry, she has been recognized for her contributions and achievements by the International Women's Insolvency Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC) as well as the American Bankruptcy Institute. Beth is also a volunteer with Her Justice.

Please join us in welcoming Beth to the KCC Corporate Restructuring team.
