2. Background – The Housing Act 2004

- a. If you are a Landlord in England and Wales and you enter into a Tenancy and take a Deposit from your Tenant on or after 6 April 2007, or you renew an existing Tenancy whether on the same or on different terms to the previous Tenancy, the Deposit must be protected in a Government authorised tenancy deposit scheme. This rule only applies if the tenancy is an Assured Periodic Tenancy.
- b. If the Deposit is not protected in a Government authorised tenancy deposit scheme and/ or the prescribed information required by the Housing Act 2004 is not provided, Tenants may make an application to Court and the Court may order that the Deposit be repaid to the Tenant or that the Deposit be paid into a Government authorised tenancy deposit scheme. The Court may also order that the Landlord pay compensation of not less than the amount of the Deposit and not more than three times the amount of the Deposit.
- c. The Landlord has a statutory obligation to provide the Tenant(s) with the Prescribed Information within 30 days from receipt of the Deposit. The Landlord must give the Tenant(s) the opportunity to check and sign the Prescribed Information by way of confirmation that it is correct. The DPS will provide the confirmation detailed in section 12 of these Insured Scheme Terms and Conditions but The DPS cannot provide the Prescribed Information on behalf of Landlords. A Prescribed Information template can however be downloaded at www.depositprotection.com. Deposits are protected to ensure:
 - (i) when Tenants are entitled to it, they get all or part of their Deposit back;
 - (ii) when Tenants are not entitled to get all or part of their Deposit back, all or part of the Deposit is paid to the Landlord;
 - (iii) any Disputes between Tenants and Landlords will be easier to resolve; and
 - (iv) Tenants are encouraged to look after the property they are renting.

3. Overview of how the Scheme works

- a. The Tenant pays the Landlord the Deposit in accordance with the terms of the Tenancy Agreement. If the Landlord chooses to register the Deposit with an insured tenancy deposit scheme, the Housing Act 2004 requires that the Landlord must register the Deposit within 30 calendar days of physically receiving it. The DPS will, however, accept Deposit registrations after this time.
- b. Following the successful protection of a Deposit, The DPS will provide confirmation of protection and other information to the Landlord and Tenant as detailed further in Section 12. The Landlord must provide the Prescribed Information to the Tenant.
- c. At the end of the Tenancy, the Landlord and Tenant should attempt to agree the basis for part or all of the Deposit to be returned by the Landlord to the Tenant.
- d. If there is a Dispute regarding the return of all or part of the Deposit the Dispute will be dealt with in accordance with these Insured Scheme Terms and Conditions (see Sections 16 to 20) unless The DPS is notified otherwise in writing.
- e. If a Tenant has no current address for the Landlord or the Landlord fails to respond to the Tenant's written notice asking whether the Landlord accepts that the Tenant should be paid some or all of the Deposit within 14 calendar days of the end of the Tenancy, the Tenant should follow the End of Tenancy process (as detailed in Section 16).
