

NEWS RELEASE

Date:	30/07/12
Subject:	Five years in a row as UK's top registrar

Computershare Investor Services PLC has been voted the UK's top registrar five years in a row with the release of this year's Capital Analytics survey of registrars.

Computershare topped six of the eight survey categories including 'Overall Satisfaction', 'Service to Company' and 'Service to Shareholders' and was voted top in 25 of the 36 individual areas for providing a consistently high standard of service.

The results of the survey also show continued improved scores in categories including 'Call Centre Knowledge about the Company' and 'Account Management'.

Naz Sarkar, regional CEO, said: "Achieving the top spot five years in a row is a fantastic result. We have focused on additional investment in technology and training for our staff over the last year and this shows in the report. Our aim is always to deliver a top class service for our clients and their shareholders and we are delighted this is once again reflected in the outcome of the survey."

Capital Analytics is a survey of the registrars of FTSE 350 companies only and is conducted on an annual basis. This year 296 companies participated in the survey.
