Computershare

PERFECT REGISTER MANAGEMENT
FOR YOU AND YOUR SHAREHOLDERS

A precise, legally compliant register is an indispensable prerequisite when it comes to fully exploiting the advantages of registered shares for your company. Computershare is the market leader in share registration in Switzerland and offers the full range of services for registered shares. From provision of the IT infrastructure to the recording, administration and maintenance of shareholder data as well as targeted shareholder communications, our experienced experts take care of all aspects of register management for you – legally compliant, reliable and efficient. As a result, so you can focus on your important strategic tasks in the area of investor relations.

We offer the complete range of services for register management.

Comprehensive range of services

> Recording, administration and maintenance of shareholder data

> Electronic transmission of all data

> Monitoring, confirmation and control of electronic orders with daily stock reconciliation

> Detailed reporting

> Support with corporate actions – including their complete implementation

> Creation of registered shares from capital increases

> Cancellation of registered shares from capital reductions

> Settlement of share exchanges and splits

> Recording and management of publications in the shareholder base

> Planning and implementation of mailings

> Printing and dispatch or destruction of share certificates

> An expert point of contact for you, your shareholders and banks for both simple and complex topics

Powerful register platform

Our sophisticated software solution ensures the highest quality data and full shareholder transparency in the register – while constantly adapting to the latest legal and technical requirements.

@ Web-based software solution

▢ No additional IT equipment required

☝ Simple and intuitive operation

🔒 Maximum security via 2-factor authentication

📝 Comprehensive reporting options

Maximum IT security

Safety and reliability are our top priorities. Using state-of-the-art, high-performance IT systems, we ensure your data is always optimally protected and guarantee the seamless continuation of the share register – even after unforeseen incidents.

Put your trust in our reliable IT infrastructure

> State-of-the-art, hyper-convergent infrastructure

> All data hosted exclusively in Switzerland

> Continuous development of the relevant application and safety standards

> Reliable monitoring through Computershare's global risk management

Your advantages at a glance

> Reliable, efficient and daily register management

> Consistently high-quality data

> Comprehensive analysis and reporting options

> Worldwide access to your register

> Reliable compliance with statutory requirements and data-protection legislation

> Cutting-edge IT security standards

> Access to our experts' profound, industry-specific know-how

We would be pleased to show you the individual optimisation potential for your register management.

Discover more at www.computershare.com/ch/en

Computershare Switzerland Ltd
Baslerstrasse 90, 4600 Olten sales@computershare.ch
+41 62 205 77 00