Item 3 – Remuneration Report

The Directors’ Report for the year ended 30 June 2013 contains a Remuneration Report, which sets out the policy for the remuneration of the directors and certain group executives of the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Corporations Act requires that a resolution be put to the vote of the Company’s shareholders that the Remuneration Report be adopted.

The Corporations Act expressly provides that the vote is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the Company. However, under the Corporations Act, if at least 25% of the votes cast on the resolution at the AGM are against adoption of the Remuneration Report, then, if, at the Company’s annual general meeting in 2014, at least 25% of the votes cast on the resolution for adoption of the remuneration report are also against its adoption, at that meeting the Company will be required to put to shareholders a resolution (Spill Resolution) proposing that a general meeting be held (Spill Meeting) to consider the re-election of the directors of the Company.

If more than 50% of the votes cast on the Spill Resolution are in favour of the Spill Resolution, the Spill Resolution will be passed. The Spill Meeting must be held within 90 days after the passing of the Spill Resolution. All of the directors who were directors of the Company when the resolution to make the directors’ report considered at the annual general meeting was passed (other than the managing director) will cease to hold office immediately before the end of the Spill Meeting, unless they are re-elected at the Spill Meeting.

Shareholders attending the AGM will be given a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about, or make comments on, the Remuneration Report.
VOTING RESTRICTIONS IN RESPECT OF ITEM 3

The Company will disregard any votes cast on the resolution at Item 3 (adoption of the Remuneration Report) by:

(a) a member of the key management personnel of the Company or the Company’s Group (KMP);
(b) a closely related party of a KMP; or
(c) a person appointed as proxy where the appointment does not specify the way the proxy is to vote on the resolution, and the person is:
   (i) a KMP; or
   (ii) a closely related party of a KMP.

KMP are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Company, whether directly or indirectly. Members of KMP include directors (both executive and non-executive) and certain senior executives.

A closely related party of a member of KMP is defined as:

(a) a company the member controls;
(b) the member’s spouse, child or dependant (or a child or dependant of the member’s spouse); or
(c) anyone else who is one of the member’s family and may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, the member in the member’s dealings with the entity.

This means that the KMP of the Company (which includes each of the Directors) will not be able to vote as your proxy on Item 3 unless you tell them how to vote or, if the Chairman of the Meeting is your proxy (or becomes your proxy by default), you expressly authorise him to vote as he sees fit on Item 3 by leaving the boxes for that Item blank. Please read the information below under the heading ‘Undirected proxies’, which (among other things) deals with the Chairman’s voting of undirected proxies on the resolution in Item 3.

Shareholders may be liable for breach of the voting restrictions in the Corporations Act if they cast a vote that the Company is required to disregard.

Information for Shareholders

IMPORTANT: The Board recommends that shareholders vote in favour of each item of business. The Chairman of the Meeting intends to vote all available undirected proxies in favour of each item of business.

1. Voting, direct votes and proxy votes

1.1 A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the AGM may vote by:
   (a) attending the meeting in person;
   (b) appointing a proxy representative or attorney to attend and vote at the meeting on their behalf; or
   (c) lodging a valid notice of their voting intention by means of a direct vote.

1.2 A shareholder may only vote by one of the methods listed in paragraph 1.1 above.

1.3 Shareholders who do not plan to attend the AGM are encouraged to complete and return a voting form, or to register their direct vote or proxy electronically (see below). Shareholders may withdraw their direct vote or proxy, and attend and vote at the AGM, even if they have sent a voting form to the Company or registered their vote electronically.

How to lodge a direct vote or appoint a proxy

1.4 A shareholder may lodge a direct vote or appoint a proxy by:
   (a) using the voting form provided with this Notice of AGM; or
   (b) the electronic medium available at the website http://www.investorvote.com.au. Shareholders who use this medium will be taken to have signed or authenticated their voting form if it is submitted in accordance with the instructions given on the website. Custodians and other intermediaries who are users of Computershare’s Intermediary Online service may lodge their direct votes or appoint a proxy by the electronic medium available at the website http://www.intermediaryonline.com.

Direct voting

1.5 A shareholder may lodge a direct vote by indicating on the voting form that they are casting their vote directly and then placing a mark in one of the boxes opposite each item of business on the voting form. All of the shareholder’s shares will be voted in accordance with such direction, unless the shareholder indicates that their direction is:
   (a) to vote only a portion of their votes on any item; or
   (b) to cast their votes in different ways on any item, by inserting the number of shares in the appropriate box or boxes.
1.6 If a shareholder indicates that they are lodging their votes directly and then does not mark any of the boxes on a given item, no votes will be voted on that item.

1.7 If a shareholder indicates that they are lodging their votes directly and then marks more than one box on an item, their vote on that item will be invalid. If a shareholder inserts a number of shares in boxes on any item that in total exceed the number of shares that the shareholder holds as at the voting entitlement time, the shareholder’s vote on that item will be invalid, unless the shareholder inserted the number of shares in one box only, in which case it will be taken to be valid for the total number of shares held at that time.

Appointing a proxy

1.8 A proxy:
   (a) need not be a shareholder of the Company; and
   (b) may be an individual or a body corporate.

1.9 A shareholder may direct their proxy how to vote by indicating on the voting form that they are appointing a proxy to vote on their behalf and then placing a mark in one of the boxes opposite each item of business on the voting form. All of the shareholder’s shares will be voted in accordance with such direction, unless the shareholder indicates that their proxy is:
   (a) to vote only a portion of their votes on any item; or
   (b) to cast their votes in different ways on any item, by inserting the percentage or number of shares in the appropriate box or boxes.

1.10 If a shareholder appointing a proxy does not mark any of the boxes on a given item, the proxy may vote as the proxy chooses. If the shareholder does not direct the proxy regarding all of their votes on any item, the proxy may vote as the proxy chooses in respect of the undirected votes. If the shareholder directs the proxy to cast their votes in different ways on any item, the proxy must not vote on a show of hands in respect of that item, but may vote on a poll.

1.11 If a shareholder appointing a proxy marks more than one box on an item, their vote on that item will be invalid. If a shareholder inserts percentages or a number of shares in boxes on any item that in total exceed 100% or exceed the number of shares that the shareholder holds as at the voting entitlement time, the shareholder’s vote on that item will be invalid, unless the shareholder inserted the number of shares in one box only, in which case it will be taken to be valid for the total number of shares held at that time.

1.12 If the shareholder is entitled to cast two or more votes, the shareholder has the right to appoint two proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise. If the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the shareholder’s votes each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise one half of the shareholder’s votes. If the shareholder appoints two proxies, neither proxy may vote on a show of hands.

1.13 Any directed proxies that are not voted on a poll at the meeting will automatically default to the Chairman of the Meeting, who is required to vote proxies as directed.

Undirected proxies

1.14 The Company’s Chairman, Mr Morris, will chair the AGM and intends to vote all available undirected proxies in favour of all of the resolutions. If you complete a proxy form that authorises the Chairman of the Meeting to vote on your behalf as proxy, and you do not mark any of the boxes so as to give him directions about how your vote should be cast, then, in accordance with the express authority provided for in the proxy form, the Chairman will vote in favour of the resolution at Item 3 (adoption of the Remuneration Report). If you wish to appoint the Chairman of the Meeting as your proxy, and you wish to direct him how to vote, please tick the appropriate box on the form.

1.15 If you appoint as your proxy any director of Computershare, except the Chairman, or any other KMP or any of their closely related parties and you do not direct your proxy how to vote on Item 3, he or she will not vote your proxy on that item of business.

Signing the voting form

1.16 If the shareholder is:
   (a) an individual – the voting form must be signed or otherwise authenticated by the shareholder or the shareholder’s attorney; or
   (b) a corporation – the voting form must be signed or otherwise authenticated in accordance with the Corporations Act or under the hand of an attorney.

1.17 Where two or more persons are registered as a shareholder, each person must sign or authenticate the voting form.

1.18 If the voting form is completed by an individual or a corporation under a power of attorney, that power of attorney must be provided to the Company together with the completed voting form, unless the Company has previously noted that power of attorney.
