

Annual Meeting Responsibilities

A successful shareholder meeting requires coordination between a number of parties and processes. This annual meeting responsibilities flow chart outlines the primary functions that should be performed during the annual meeting season as well as the parties responsible for those functions.

